I am an accomplished iOS Developer with around 6 years of experience in the Computer Software industry, specializing in SWIFT, Objective-C, SwiftUI, and a range of development tools like Xcode, GitLab, and Zeplin. Proven success in implementing in-app purchases using SwiftyStoreKit, notably in the AudiOn app, and integrating AWS services for chat features in apps like Vedique Diet and 8Well. Proficient in creating dynamic UI with advanced calculations and filters, demonstrated in OneDios applications. Strong background in product-based companies, showcasing expertise in efficient project management, and version control using tools like Bitbucket, Jira, and Redmine. Complemented by a Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Science, with a deep understanding of Apple's design principles and a commitment to delivering top-notch user experiences.
